In the days of daguerreotypes and hoop-skirts we celebrated our 1st anniversary

THE above are reproductions of portions of the January 6th, 1859, issue of "The Programme." Our advertisement directly above appeared on the back page of this

In 1859, on our first anniversary, we were calling the attention of the public to the fact that was "the place to get it." That the public has appreciated our efforts to provide a place for them to "get it" is possibly best indicated by our steady growth. In celebration of this, our Sixty-Second Anniversary, we have made and will continue to make during the next four days special offerings-anniversary economies which are consistently lower than our usual lowest-in-the-city prices.
